“ Sending heartfelt condolences to Sis. Velma and family. My prayers are that God will give you comfort like only he can and that the grace of God will carry you through this trying time. When you cannot understand why this is happening as they do understand that God's love will never something to come our way without having already equipped us to go through it. Rest on Monte' (that's what we at Reilly Road Church called you) until we meet again. 🙏❤️
