“ To the Jackson Family,

I knew Niecy since I was eleven years old and she was twelve. She became my sister-in-law. Niecy never changed in all the years of knowing her. She has always been a sweet, kind and lovable person just like Ms. Elaine. I will truly miss her smile, laughter and fun times together. However, I believe that she is at peace. May God comfort everyone who knew her.

“ *Sending Prayers of comfort & peace for the family of Min Denise that God will give you the strength needed as you heal .We labored together in Minster a few years ago and would always stay in contact through talking or text. I will always remember her love for her family & serving. May she Rest in Peace now having finished her work on this side and the memories we have turn our mourning into joy. “ So sad to hear of your passing. I'll miss you stopping by my job talking to me asking about my mom. Such a sweet person. You will truly be missed here on earth. To the family may god wrap his loving arms around each of you and comfort at this difficult time. That beautiful smile I'll never forget. SIP 💕💕
