“ My most sincere condolences, thoughts and prayers for the Mims family. He served as my pastor for eighteen years. Even after he left I still referred to him as my pastor and he would laugh. His smile and laugh was contagious. Pastor Mims was a humble and kind man. He called me just last week concerned about the hurricane damages in my area asking about his former church members. He performed the marriage services for our only daughter and funeralized my father. May God bless Sister Mims, Demarlow and Azriel during this most difficult time in your lives. You all remain in my most sincere prayers 🙏🙏.

“ Our condolences to Mrs Mims and Demario and Azarel as we are so very saddened to hear about the passing of Rev Mims. He was always a delight to talk to. At our wedding 2004 when he married us, the whole church felt completely welcomed with his delightful gestures and comments. Always encouraging and spreading the word of God. We loved him and his family and pray that you will find comfort in this time of sorrow. Love and blessings to you always. Rev Walter and Belinda Vinson and Nicky.

May the GOD of comfort provide peace to Mrs. Mims, her children and dear family members. I met Dennis in Mrs. Sims' kindergarten class at Corinth Baptist Church in Union, SC, where years later, he preached his trial sermon. Dennis' humble spirit, sincerity, and overall care for others will surely be missed. Dennis set the example of what it meant to exemplify character and integrity and impacted so many. Rest in peace old friend!

His earlier years in Union, SC, were full of learning to depend on and trust in God. His calling to the ministry was so special as he began preaching the Word of God to the people of McBeth Baptist Church in Union, SC. Dennis respected and cared for all people.
