“ To lose a child is a crushing weight for parents. We often think that Our children will bury us. You are not alone at this time because the Creator of all is sadden by this death also. He made man to live and not to die. Therefore he has promised to undo all the suffering that death causes. Jesus assures us at John 6:40 what the future is for those asleep in death. he tells us the provision that his Father has made dor those asleep in the dust. When the family feels up to it, please read of that promise and be comforted. So sorry for the loss of Mr. Irons.
