“ In honor of Mrs. Dianne W. Johnson {Evangelist}
I am so thankful for our years of fellowship, traveling and time of prayer. I recall when we met in Plainfield, NJ in the 70's.
The light of Christ was shining in your life, with a sweet, humble spirit.
I recalled one trip we took together to Timmonsvilles, SC, and attended a revival it was there I was baptised with the Holy Spirit.
We shared so many memororable times together as sprirtual sisters. We both experienced challenging times in our lives, but we remained faithful to the Lord.

Dianne, my friend and sister, you have left a GREAT legacy for the Johnson family and so many others.

To the children: Lashelle, Tara, Teara, Gloria, and the custodial chiidren, grandchildren, and great grandchildren always remember the teaching of mother and continue to love each other.

To Dr. Nettles, Earestine, Nathaniel, and Josh, and the extended family be steadfast unmovable always abounding in the work of the Lord because your labor will not be in vain.

I pepitition the Lord for you today and the days to come that he will comfort you during this time of bereavement. May the grace and favor of God surround you all like a sheild.

*God's abiding love,
{Lois} Min. Delores Williams*
