“ Mother,

We love you and will miss you so very much. You leave behind so many loving family members, friends, and acquaintances. All of whom were truly blessed to have known you. Trusting in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, we all know you're in a better place now. However, the tears still cannot stop. There will always be a void left in our hearts. Mere words can never ever express our feelings and our sense of loss. God has let us know your work is done. That you have fought the good fight. And you can say with true honesty and faithfulness, "May the work I've done speak for me." And God has said, "Well done, my good and faithful servant." Rest in peace.

Your Loving Son, James (Cynthia)

Proverbs 17:6 says, "Grandchildren are the crown of the aged" and so obviously, being a grandparent is meant to be a blessing. No love is like a grandmother's love! We love you!

Grandchildren: Tanisha & Tawana, Great Grandchildren: James, Justin, Javon, Jaylen, Melquan, Nahquan & Juel, Great Great Grandchildren: Nevaeha, Amor, Amelia, Ivonne, Rome, & Jayden

To My Beloved Aunt Dottie.

You have inspired me and touched my life deeply. Every time I saw you and gave you a hug and said I love you. I always meant it from the heart. What I saw in you was a life of a TRUE reflection of the way God intended for us to live. A true example and for showing me how this life is suppose to look when you follow Christ, thank you. My heart hurt as I'm writing this. I hurt because I won't be running into you anymore like I used to. I remember how you took care of my loving grandma who is your loving mom. You were there and dedicated to doing whatever you could for her. I miss you both. I know you said dont cry..... I know you are with our father . Sleep and rest on until the trumpet blows. Eternal Love, your neice Vernette

“ Sister McDuffie was a person that believed in God and sharing the good news. We would see her every Sunday morning at the post office and talk about how good God is. She was on her way to Church and we were also, but we always had time to greet one another and be on our way. To the McDuffie and McRae family we are praying for your strength in these trying times. God bless and keep you all. Bishop HB/Sister Drake and the Word Of Life Ministries; Fairmont, NC
