“ Dwight! a family member but most importantly my best friend as we grow up together. Leaving home 39 years ago, I left a friend and cousin whom I loved and respected dearly. We shared a lot of special moments and built a bond during those few years that time can't break. Although, separated by many miles he was never forgotten and any thoughts I had of Green Grove, Fair Grove and Finally South Robeson High School, Dwight was always there. Speaking with him a few months ago helped fill a void that had been open for many years. He will be missed but never forgotten. Dwight we love you my brother, may God keep you safe in "His Arms" My Wife and I offer our condolence to the family. Zimiman and Zina Brown
