“ Auntie,
I want to say “thank you” for the Love that you shared. I thank you for the prayers that you prayed. Thank you for the macaroni salad and thin slices of cake. I will miss our phone chats and how you ended all of our calls with “Victory” . Kiss Mama and Daddy for us, life has not been the same since you guys left. It’s always hard to say goodbye so I will say see you later Auntie ❤️
Love,
Miranda
