“ Today I learned that Eddie passed away in September and it brought me to tears. He and I worked together for about a year and he was truly a good guy. We had many conversations about his son, whom he loved so very much. Though he faced some challenges in life, as we all do, Eddie was really working hard to make a better life for himself and his family. My heart goes out to his family and friends, my deepest condolences to them. Rest in peace, dear Eddie, I'm proud to call you a friend.
