“ I first met Eddie in 2007 at Goodyear and he and I quickly became good friends. Eddie had a kind heart and always had good conversations and we shared a lot of laughs. He loved playing the lotto and always dreamed about the things he would do when he won. He often shared his proud moments of his two sons which he loved dearly. He was a great father and friend. You will be missed my friend and now there is no more worrying and pain. Til we meet again, may your soul be blessed my friend.

“ Those we love can never be more than a thought away, for as long as there's a memory they live in our hearts to stay.
