

Mr. Edward D. Davis

January 12, 1948 - September 28, 2021

Edward Dewey Davis was born on January 12th, 1948 to the late Rufus Ulmer Davis and the late E. Magdeline G. Davis in Hemingway, South Carolina. He began his Christian training in Bethlehem A.M.E. Church. These experiences provided guidance in building a positive and humble life.

Edward D. Davis, also lovingly known by Dewey, graduated from Chavis High School where he participated in activities which gave opportunities to develop leadership skills and traits for the future. He then attended South Carolina State University, where he began his courtship with Jacqueline Hughes. He graduated with a degree in Professional Biology. Following college, E. Dewey continued his education by receiving his Certification as a Medical Technologist from Rutgers University, while working for the East Orange New Jersey Health Department and Pathology Lab.

With a continuous thirst for knowledge, Edward proudly joined the U.S. Army as a Commissioned Field Artillery Officer. He served through all levels of Staff and Command throughout the United States, Europe and South Korea. After years of service and receiving multiple Service Medals, he retired honorably from the U.S. Army as Captain at Ft. Bragg, North Carolina. Upon his exit, he began working as a Senior Sales Associate with Metropolitan Life and affiliated companies.

As he continued to embrace his upbringing in Christ and leadership knowledge, Ed remained an active member of Evans Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church for over 39 years. He served in the following capacities: Member of the Board of Stewards, Member of the Christian Education Department, Coordinator & Scout Master, Assistant Scout Leader of Scouts at Simon Temple A.M.E. Zion Church, Member of Parent Body #2, Missionary Society (Life Member), Evans Lay Council Member, President of the Lay Council (Life Member), Evans Metropolitan Choir, the Walter B. Drake Chorus and was the recipient of the Henry Evans Service Award. His service reached outside the church into civic and community organizations also. He was active in the Fayetteville State University Pre-College Program, Cumberland County Board of Elections (Precinct Judge) and Parent/Teacher Associations.

To cherish the E. Dewey legacy and memories are his wife of 49 years, Jacqueline H. Davis; sister Jacqueline Davis; brother Frederick Davis (Jestine); adult children Yolanda, Jacquetta (Raheem) and Edward II (Aranica); wonderful grandchildren Raheem "RJ" Jr., Aria and Jaleigha; in-laws Doug (Cynthia), the late Paul (Penelope), Mary (Caleb), Lee Sr. (Queen), Jo Anne, Dianne, Ronald (Jo Ann); and a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, extended family and friends.

Martha Davis, and they shared so many wonderful conversations and visits. “ Always enjoyed our deep conversations. Ed was extremely cerebral and knowledgeable on almost any subject. We bonded on our first meeting when his son my son in law introduced me to him. Ed was also a very helpful and humble man. On a visit to his home I saw his medals and found that he was a Captain. His speech at my daughter and his sons wedding is indelibly etched in my mind. Although his Body / Soul is not here his Spirit will rise and is everlasting as we know the Soul is just the vessel but the Spirit is what connects us with God, just as with the first man when God breathe the breath of Life in Adam an he became a living Soul with a Human Spirit that relates to God's Holy Spirit. Ed's Spirit is immortal and only God can take that, Death cannot it can only take the Soul. I look forward to more great conversations with you Captain Davis, when our Spirit's get together soon.
