“ Elias I was praying for you without ever seeing your beautiful smiling face. Seeing all of your pictures and knowing that you were a DUKE fan just like me I hate that I never got the pleasure of meeting you. I know that you were the shining star in your mother eyes and she chatted about you on many occasions with me while working. Now I will pray even more that you will watch over her from Heaven and I pray that God will bring her comfort and peace. My condolences to the family and friends of Elias. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers. Weeping may endure for a night, but Joy will come in the morning light.

“ There are no words that can truly ease the pain of losing a child. My heart breaks for you and your family during this unimaginable time. Your sweet son brought so much light, love, and joy into the lives of everyone who knew him, and his beautiful spirit and smile will never be forgotten. My mother would say often Elias still smiles even now he was going through so much.

Please know that you are surrounded by love and prayers. I hope you find strength in the precious memories you shared and comfort in knowing how deeply he was loved. May God hold you close and give you peace one day at a time.

A Child Of Mine

By Edgar A. Guest

*I will lend you, for a little time,
A child of mine, He said.
For you to love the while he lives,
And mourn for when he's dead.
It may be six or seven years,
Or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call him back,
Take care of him for Me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you,
And should his stay be brief.
You'll have his lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay,
Since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true.
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love,
Nor think the labour vain.
Nor hate me when I come
To take him home again?
I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness,
We'll love him while we may,*

*And for the happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for him,
Much sooner than we've planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand.*

“ To Ed, Beverly, Kristen, Jared, the Pone, and the Dukes Families,

May God's tender mercy comfort your hearts and may the light He placed in Elias' heart and soul shine forever. Allow that light to help guide your steps as you continue on the journey God has set before you. Though Elias' legacy wasn't a lengthy one; it was a powerful, faithful, meaningful, and loving one. It's like a bright illumination of HOPE for us all. Though you miss him, may Elias' memory be cherished in your hearts forever and may it be a special blessing to many. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I met Elias and his family at the UNC Cancer Hospital in October of 2025 while we were both undergoing Radiation Treatments for Cancer. He was the bright spot of that journey for me with his ready smile and ability to engage with everyone he met. Elias and his Mother became a part of my daily thoughts and prayers and I have shared his story with everyone that has been praying for me and my journey. I miss him tremendously and look forward to seeing him again when I go home to be with my Lord and Saviour. Thank you Elias for making a huge difference in my life, and in in the lives of countless other persons!
