“ I have been in North Carolina for 3 years, and I can honestly say he was an angel already. He helped so many people even those he didn't know. For me he never had a bad bone to say about those around, and always managed to make me smile. He will truly be missed!!! Keeping his family in my thoughts, and prayers.

“ If you knew Elijah aka Lijah, he always met you with a smile and a hug. He was family to the "Washington Square/Hastie Loop" family and our family also. I remember him coming to my mother's birthday party on the bus and we made sure he got home safe. I wish I had known his middle name was Elvis, I would have had some Elvis jokes....Rest in Peace Elijah..

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Mitchell Family at the passing of Elijah. Words alone will not heal the hurt that your heart are experiencing, but know that these few words and the enormous love of God will provide solace at a time like this. May all our memories of Elijah's kindness and love be the sustainer until we all meet again. God bless you all today and always 🙏??

“ If you knew Elijah aka Lijah you always saw him smiling and always gave you a hug. He was family to the "Melvin " family. If we had a gathering at my mom's house he would catch the bus, and we made sure he got home. I am going to miss that smile, hug but we have memories. Rest in Heaven Lijah...
