

Ms. Ella Mae Alford

September 17, 1937 - October 31, 2021

Ella was born to the late James (Jim) Alford and Henrietta Davis Alford in Dillion SC. She was educated in the Robeson County School System where she graduated class of 1951 from St. Paul's High School.

Ella joined Malloy Grove Church in Parkton NC at an early age then moved her membership to Southend Missionary Baptist Church. Ella retired from Black Decker after serving 33 years. While she was working her regular job, she owned several businesses in the North Carolina and South Carolina areas Ideal Rest Home and Mother's Love Group Home and a few restaurants.

She was a lifetime member of Cape Fear Health Plex. Ella was a woman that loved to cook and bake her sweet breads. Mother loved gospel quartet singing also. Ella was a woman of no nonsense and said what she meant and meant was she said. She was very supportive of all her children.

Preceding her in death; Lula McCoy, Mildred McNeil, Virginia Freeman, Howard Alford and David Alford and Shirley Alford.

She leaves to cherish her memory; two daughters; Mary (Reginald) McDowell, Sherry (Edward) Salazar of Fayetteville NC. Four sons, Bobby Alford, Donnie Alford, Argentina Alford, Verontina (Shelley) Alford of Fayetteville NC. One God son, Ronald C. Bazie Sr. of Metairie LA; special nephew George

Alford of North Brunswick NJ, and a special niece Rethea McNeil of Dillion SC. 15 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren, 2 great-great grands and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Mother's Love Group Home Residents, Daniel, Ricky, Joe, and Harvey.

“ It is with the Saddest Condolence that I render to the Alford family this fond memory of Mrs. Ella Mae.

Im Deacon Nathaniel Stewart, I came to know your Mother for her love for Quartet Music. Donnie her son introduced me to his loving Mother when I would MC. A number of Quartet programs in the Fayetteville community for Donnie, she was always Excited about being in attendance when I was the Master of Ceremonies. We celebrated with her on a number of her birthday celebration through Quartets Music, She will be greatly missed and loved by me and the Quartet family. We extend our love also From the Quartet community in Columbia South Carolina. God Bless the Alfred family as you prepare for this Great Homegoing Celebration for Mother Ella Mae Alfred.

Rest in peace !! We send our love and support to you the Alford, Davis family members.
