

Ellen Pauline Roane

January 7, 1936 - January 5, 2020

Ellen Pauline Butler Roane, was the daughter of the late George Lee Butler, Sr. and Bertha Monroe Butler. Pauline, as she was fondly called by her family, began her earthly journey on January 7, 1936 in Fayetteville, North Carolina. She transitioned into eternal rest and peace surrounded by her loving family on January 5, 2020 in Raleigh, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by brothers Dr. George Lee Butler, Jr., Frederick Douglas Butler, Ernest Woodrow Butler, David Allen Butler, and sisters Alberta Lee Butler, Annette Elizabeth Butler Norris, Gertrude Louise Butler Freeman and Ruth Arlene Butler Stokes.

As a child, Pauline grew up in Fayetteville, North Carolina where she was a member of First Baptist Church. She attended Newbold Elementary and graduated from E.E. Smith High School. After attending Howard University in Washington, D.C., she began her career as a Personnel Staffing Specialist with the District of Columbia government.

Later, she returned to Fayetteville where she was the administrator and broker-in-charge for Suburban Real Estate, a family business. In addition, she was one of the first African American female magistrates to be appointed in the state of North Carolina until her retirement in 1997. Thereafter, she devoted her time as a loving grandmother to her two granddaughters and continued to sell residential and commercial real estate as a licensed broker until her recent decline in health.

She is survived by her children and grandchildren; daughter, Dr. Karen Denise Roane (son-in-law, Dr. Mark Anthony Jones) and son, Captain Glenwood Paris Roane, Jr.; granddaughters, Kaya Nicole Jones and Kelly Kiara Noelle Jones, all of Raleigh, NC. In addition she is survived by her brothers, Reverend Enoch Butler, of Atlanta, GA and Reverend George Sampson, Sr., of Lakeport, California along with a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

God gave us 83 years of love, strength and guidance. We are blessed because her legacy is founded on trust in Jesus Christ, who she declared as her Lord and Savior at an early age.
