

Minister Essie Mae McCallum

January 16, 1959 - June 28, 2024

Minister Essie Mae McCallum, also known as "Cookie," was born on January 16, 1959, to Thurman and Mae Curtis McCallum. Cookie earned her GED from Robeson Community College and later obtained a Brokers License. She co-founded C&C Kingdom Transportation with her "King", Willie Charles Williams, and also helped run Williams Trucking Company. In addition to these ventures, she also stated Mercy and Grace Freight Finders. Cookie was a driven entrepreneur who always sought out new opportunities.

In 1995, Cookie gave her life to Christ and became a humble and dedicated servant in the kingdom. She faithfully served in the ministry at True Tabernacle in Florence, South Carolina, using her gifts as a minister. Cookie deeply cared for her pastor and would accompany him to different ministry appointments, showing unwavering dedication even when her health was failing. One of her favorite pastimes was watching court shows, shopping, and spending quality time with her family. She also enjoyed visiting various churches to engage in fellowship. Cookie was preceded in death by her mother, Mae Curtis McCallum; father, Thurman

McCallum; stepmother, Alice Faye McCallum; sisters, Elaine Berry and Angela Williams; and brother, Thurman McCallum, Jr.

Her memory will live on in the hearts of: her beloved daughters, Veronica McCallum (Alonzo) and Victoria Freeman (Domitez); brother, Vernon McCallum (Debra); grandchildren, Darius McCallum, Deon Watson, Raven Watson, Ry'Asia Watson, DaQuan Watson, Mi'Angel Freeman, Zaiden

Cromartie, A'Zerion Cromartie, Jenesis Ladson, Zyien Cromartie, Domitez Freeman Jr., Kadien Freeman, Kait-lynn Rose Freeman, Hannah Hurst and London Hurst; great-grandchildren, Jordan Campbell, Keon Watson, Rhylan Chavis and Rumani Ford; she is also survived by a special friend, Willie Charles Williams.

“ Sister Cookie as I called her, was a light not hidden under a barrel but was a light in a dark place. She was the victor because of Christ alone.

She seasoned the earth with salt of heaven.

She won the battle she crossed the finish line, now she's cheering us on.

Hearts are heavy but God is the strength of our hearts and portion forever.

Family continue to carry the torch.

Love to Cookies family.
