You touched so many in different ways. There was never a time when we met that we both didn't bust out laughing and just have a great conversation after. You were part of my life when I was younger and learning to grow and today I will miss you so dearly. I pray you are at peace and you are smiling down on us all....Prayers for your family and all your wonderful friends who loved you so much....Love Janice

I only met Evelyn a few times. She was always so friendly and warm. May her memory continue to warm the hearts of those who were close to her. We look forward to the time when there will be no more sickness, mourning, outcry of pain or death. These former things will have passed away. Revelations 21:1-4. May the God of comfort give peace to her family and friends.
