“ I will always remember, and hold dear that beautiful smile of yours. When I was a teenager trying to skate with the "Grown Folks" down at the USO, you became like a big sister to me. You showed me love, and treated me like family. No one threw a house party like you. We could all dance, have a good time, without any worries, because everyone that came into your home, knew how to act like they had good sense. It was understood you were not about to put up with any foolishness. I am truly thankful to have known such a warm and caring person. Rest in Peace Flo.
