“ To my big brother, you made life easy I always knew what not to do. Because you would go first. I was pushing you pulling for the same thing a better tomorrow. the most high God said he would never leave me. now you are with the most High God I know you will always be here for me just as when we where kids then to now forever more. so many story to tel. God has bless me with you. Frank was(the one whom was to come) before Jerome. We will judge the angels. well job big bro. No man walking this earth has stood by my side like you and long as you have. love you (To we meet again).

“ Frank for as long as I can remember you’ve been a special cousin to me. Growing up together on Regan road playing in the dirt and ditches and just being bad together stealing Mr Popeye grapes. Boy did we have to break a lot of switches for grandma. You being the “philosopher” had some good ways to avoid those licks. I can still hear Aunt Margaret singing your name... Fraaaankkk. Jerooooome. I will cherish those memories of you and all of our time together. Even the time y’all put the hot sauce in my eyes (Lol). I Love You cousin. May you Peace in Peace.

“ To the family, that became my family. I was saddened to hear of Frank’s passing. I pray that God’s presence will comfort you all during this time. I thank God for Frank being a part of my life. He and Jerome were my Daddy’s boys and Ellen his baby girl. May all of our memories of Frank carry us through this time. Blessings to all of you.

“ My dad was ONE OF A KIND, he's a "never will be forgotten" soul. The impact he had on family & friends & folks just passing by is a gift from God. He just couldn't wait any longer without dad. I held your hand & wiped your head, I'll never forget you dad, the only man I have ever loved! Your peace gives me peace. Rest Daddy you deserve too!💜
