

Mr. Frank Lee Finney

October 25, 1937 - November 9, 2021

Mr. Frankie Lee Finney, Jr. was born in Macon, Georgia to Mrs. Della Mae and Mr. Frankie Lee Finney, Sr. A multifaceted, intelligent man of class and distinction, Frank graduated from Ballard Hudson High School, served in the U.S. Navy, successfully completed a three-year upholstery apprenticeship, and he was blessed to retire from a gainful Iron Worker's career (Local 373) in the prime of his life. Frank was an "all-star" athlete his entire life and he won numerous awards in football, basketball, baseball, softball, track, and swimming. "Mr. Cool," as many called him, was well known for his coordinated "runway fashions," his love for fine jewelry, his detailed automobiles, and his keen sense of humor. Whether he was coaching his children to championships, fishing, racing, or appreciating the music that he loved so much, he believed in "playing to win!" He fought to win and taught us no defeat, and for the rest of our lives, he's prepared us to live in victory!

Frank was predeceased by his parents: Mrs. Della Mae and Mr. Frankie Lee Finney, Sr.; his sister, Lillian Finney; his uncles: Mr. Charlie, Mr. Roscoe, & Mr. L.C. Finney; his aunt, Ms. Vinie Finney; his Sister-In-Love, Mrs. Eugenia Coleman; his Grandson, Donnie L. Finney; and his granddaughter, Lauralin Finney. Finney; his brother, Mr. Earnest Finney; his former spouse and mother of all of his six children, Ms. Vivian Finney; his five sons & only daughter- Mr. Don Finney, Rev. Antonio Finney, Mr. Zola Finney, Mr. Verne

Condolences to the Finney Family. I stumbled across this page looking up my friend, and sadly I see that he has passed. Mr. Finney was my summer time workout partner at the Cape Fear Healthplex in between basketball seasons when I was in college and overseas in Europe. We shared the same name. Mr. Finney was cool cat! Welcomed me into his home, and even introduced me to his son Zola, in New Jersey, so that if I ever needed anything when I went back to Rutgers for school, I had support. He will truly be missed. As always Mr. Finney, I'm going to "stay focused " on my goals. Something you always reminded me to do each time we met at the gym. Peace, Blessings and Love to the family.

Beautiful tribute to Mr. Frank. He has been missed here at the HealthPlex. It was always a joy to see him.
