“ To The Family Of Sister Gail Smith Chestnut. Thank You For Allowing Her To Be An Ongoing Part Of My Life. From School Days That Lead To And Unconditional Friendship. It Was Only A Few Weeks Ago That We Had A Chance To Catch Up, And It Felt Like We Had Been Talking Every Week. We Laughed And We Had Some Serious Moments. We Graduated From Evergreen Elementary and Went On Together and Graduated From West Columbus Hi. Sch. In 1975. Still Friends, Still Close. She Shall Surly Be Missed and If We Continue To Live Right We Shall Live Together. Farewell My Sister, It's Time To Enjoy The Fruits Of Your Labor As The Holy Spirit Takes Care Of The Ones That Are Left Behind. Weeping May Endureth For A Night By Joy Cometh In The Morning. Live On Sister With The Saints That Have Gone On Before You And Have Piece While You Are In The Presence Of Our King. To God Be The Glory For A Life Of Love And Great Service.
