“ It's so hard to believe that you left so soon; I remember your first night at the hospital and the big hug we shared; your family is grieving because you left too soon; for we know our Heavenly Father makes not mistakes and we are grateful for the years he gave us to love, live and share the great if life; I pray for your wife, children, sisters and brothers and the grieving hearts that God will give us all peace with each day remembering the joyous and happy times that will forever reign in our hearts and that on the days, months and years that follow it will be those moments that will give us the strength to smile!

Yes Lisa, he did leave soon; however, we don't know, we just have to be ready...I want to remember his smile, always smiling and laffing even in the classroom in school, words cannot express that empty space of another classmate gone
