“ Sincere condolences to the family and friends of "Curtis", "Curt" Jones. If I could describe him in a word it would be Atlas. He held up the world, larger than life, perfectionist, proud of his accomplishments and there were many. Family man, electrician, builder, handyman. No need to ask when you visited who did all the home improvements, Atlas of course. He and Cookie created a beautiful home together. Honest and open and when I happened to drop by, "Where you been?" They were glad to see me and welcomed me in. It's hard to believe he's gone. I wasn't going to attend his service because I only want to remember him busy enjoying life. However, I would like to meet some of his family that I didn't know and support his wife and family that I have known for many years. I hope you find your peace.
