“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Mrs Geraldine was a beautiful soul. I enjoyed our conversations, she loved her family very much and she was so very proud of her children and grandchildren and all of their accomplishments. She talked about how she depended on God to guide her in her career and raising her children. She was an amazing example of a strong woman! She will be missed. I pray that the family will find their Peace and strength in Christ Jesus, as they remember the good times, and keep that love in their hearts for one another during this difficult time.
