“ My deepest condolences to the WILLIAMS/JONES family. My aunt was a wonderful, caring and loving person and I am going to truly miss her. Rest on Aunt Gerelene! May heaven continue to smile upon you and tell all our love ones that has already transitioned to...."Tell the Lord thank you", cause another one of God's angel made it in. I love you auntie and I'm truly going to miss you.

I will truly miss Pastor Geralene Williams. She was a true missionary at heart. We will miss her at our General and Annual Eldress Fellowship gatherings. We will miss her this year opening our Annual Conference with her well-known signature phrase, "Somebody ought to tell God thank you!" I'm sure as she entered into her rest, she gave thanks to her Heavenly Father, for truly she made it over! Praying for the family!

“ I had the honor of working with Miss Geri when she was volunteering at The Beatitude House in Spring Lake.

Her mesmerizing voice kept us enthralled, whether she was reading us a Bible verse, sharing a testimonial, or gently redirecting one of us back to Christ's path.

She was an honorable and strong woman, and left a mark on me I shall forever treasure.

My deepest condolences and prayers to the entire Jones and Williams families.

Miss Geri, I hear you up there....looking down at us and chuckling...."It's even better than I thought." May I meet you again one day.
