“ In thinking of Geraline, I ask myself “Do I really know Jesus?” She did, and was an example for me of the true meaning of knowing Jesus. Geraline was full of faith, the type the Lord requires of us. While she served others above herself, now I can only think of her as having the victory because her belief in the Lord established herself a crown of righteousness and the hearing of Jesus’ voice say to her “Well done, my good and faithful servant.” Very few people can say, upon conversation with Geraline their ears heard her not mention the name of Jesus; she to great pride and comfort in the Lord and proclaiming his goodness and grace. My only regret in knowing Geraline was never hearing her play the piano of which it was been confirmed by many that she was a “master.”

My dearest friend will be missed. Although, my heart is overwhelmed I trust that I will see her on the other side. We encouraged each other through the good times and the rough times. But, most of all I will miss her laughter.

A songbird and musician she was and a great wife to our brother, Jimmie Barnes whom she loved dearly and showed it with great kindness, and a good sister-in-law to the Barnes Family. Geraline let her light shine and always would give God the Glory. I saw her give her little praise dance one Sunday morning to the Lord when the Holy Ghost fell upon her and her voice went out so high that you knew Jesus had touched her. She was a good mom to her children and anyone who needed her assistance. Family, earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. We will miss her but its another child of God who took flight and is own her way home to be with the Lord. No more pain, no more suffering, no more sleepless nights; for every day will be like Sunday when we reach our Father's House. To God Be The Glory
