“ Alfonzo, who we always called "Fonzo," was "Bobby" our father's half brother. But, he was always considered as a full one.

Fonzo lived with us, in Buffalo, for awhile. He attended a high school here.

He and our brother, Robert "Jr.," were close in age and shared lots of fun and mischievous times.

They often laughed about the time they sneaked out the back bedroom window, late at night, to visit some neighborhood girls.

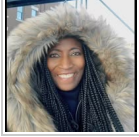

Their intent was to return, without being noticed. But, to their surprise our mother (Katie) discovered their devilment and locked the window on them. Oops!

He always emphasized that he was our uncle and should be respected -- even though he was younger than his oldest niece, Kat, and nephew, Jr.

Great memories of Fonzo are many and will be cherished.

*With love,
Your Cherry St. family*
