“ I thank God for times I had with Pops! Memories are a wonderful things. We can use them to help us heal when we are grieving, put a smile on a frowning face or warm a heart that's been made cold from a loss. I am blessed to have some very fond memories of Pops, which I will use to help me smile and warm my heart whenever I am missing my friend. Pops loved to go fishing with us at Santee on several occasions and it is here on these trips I grew to love Pops and our times together. I have some photos that I will always treasure, I share them in hopes that they may bring smiles to your faces and warm your hearts during this difficult time. May God bless Gilbert Williams Sr., his family and his friends.
Love and prayers,
