

Ms. Gloria Jean Mack

July 31, 1947 - September 10, 2024

Our beloved Gloria Jean Mack, born Gloria Jean Robinson, was born on July 31, 1947 in Fayetteville, North Carolina, to Rudolph Robinson Sr. and Dorothy Jones Robinson. Gloria was the oldest girl of nine children.

At an early age Gloria's parents moved their family to Norfolk, Virginia where they lived for many years. Gloria attended Booker T. Washington school, then later moved back to Fayetteville, which became her permanent residence. Gloria was an Inspector at Purolator where she worked for over 20 years, until she retired. In 2005 she received her high school diploma from Fayetteville Technical Community College. During this time Gloria met and fell in love with Weldon Locklear, known as J.R. He and his family loved her as much as she loved them. Gloria adored all of J.R.'s children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Their love for her was so abundant and beautiful throughout the years even until her last moments before transitioning with the Lord.

Gloria was known to many as Tiny, Sis, Grandma and Gee-Gee. She was a fashionista and her jewelry, makeup, lipstick, perfume, clothes and fashion were always on point! Her favorite color was blue, and she LOVED the Dallas Cowboys football team! Her home was decorated with the most beautiful flowers, picture art, and amazing statues. She was a phenomenal woman who had a beautiful smile that could light up an entire room. Gloria was a tough, beautiful soul who fought the good fight of faith until the Lord called her home.

Gloria is survived by four children: Michael Harris (Wanda McGill), Maurice Hargrove, Anna Carter Washington, and Susan Johnson (Gregory). Six grandchildren: Shantae, April, Adrian, Aaron, Tremaine, Aleta, Antoinessa, and Marissa. Four siblings: Ivory Robinson Powell (Sammy), Brenda Robinson, Kent Goodman, and Diane Goodman. Her lifetime partner, Weldon Locklear, and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Gloria loved and adored her entire family.
