“ To the family of the late great Grant J. Price Jr., there are no words to adequately say how truly sorry we are for the transition of your Dad, brother and grandfather. Just know that "The Brimfield Family" is truly grieving with you. Bro Price was such an inspiration to our family. He was always there for us to help with our financial questions. He shared his abundance of knowledge with us on a daily basis. He would check on my husband Terry at least 3 times a day and vice versa. He will truly be missed by US. We will always love him and will forever cherish his friendship. Our hearts are broken "BUT GOD". May you all find peace and comfort in just knowing that we care and will continue to pray for you during and after this time of bereavement.
