“ Harold you were such a light. It is still so hard to believe that we will no longer see your physical body in the choir stand but because we walk in faith we know your spirit is there with us. May God give us the strength to continue the journey. God wrap your arms around the family. Much love from Loleta, Bobby and the Wilkerson Family.

His words of encouragement meant the world to me. He will definitely be missed by many but most of all, the ones who were the closest to him. God, I thank you for the opportunity to know such a fine young man rooted in the word of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Rest well in paradise my friend.

“ Sometimes our hearts grieve for understanding, why bad things happen to good people. Had I known my last conversation with Harold, Thursday 5/22/25 was the last one, I would have taken the time to tell him what a fine young man he was. Harold was so very kind, respectful, dedicated, thoughtful, inclusive, open-minded, smart, humorous, just a very well-rounded human being. A role model for anyone pursuing success. A man honoring God and family with his walk in life. It's just hard to imagine his voice not being heard again. To the family, friends and fellow colleagues, I utter a sincere pray for peace and comfort to subdue the pain in your hearts. God always picks the most precious flowers. Rest in peach Harold, 'til we meet again.

“ To the Smith Family and those connected...

I was devastated, to hear of Harold's passing! Harold' and I met at Little Marsh Chapel AME Zion, when Dr. OT McMillan was there. He took me under his wings, and I assisted him in directing the New Generation Choir, while he attended FSU. Harold was my FRIEND. A true friend! We stayed connected! When we invited him to an event, he would be there! If he couldn't make it, he would communicate that! And vice versa! Our family loved Harold, and He loved us! He will be missed! I take comfort in knowing that he was doing what he loved and what he was truly called to do! Our lives are truly better, because we had Harold in it! God is faithful! Family, remember that God is there, and His awesome holy Spirit! Lean and cling to Him!

We love you,

The Beate Family
