“ Words alone cannot express our continued loss, nor can emotions truly express the depth of our feelings, but memories are a thing of the heart and they last forever. You are in our hearts, Today and Always. Love Terry, Liezel, Karlan, Sam, Jasmin and Sebastian.

“ Hi Mum,

How you doing babes, this has always been a very difficult day for me, commemorating your passing, as we all still miss you sooo much.

The year has had its challenges, but thankfully we have persevered. Jasmin, who's just like you, has done well in passing her two degrees and is now going on to her Masters. Sebastian is doing well, on his Digital Media and Game Design course, Leizel is well and working hard and we have been doing a very interesting series on African Sci-fi, which will have your name all over the credits, honouring you for making me the Man I wish to become.

In my life, I have been motivated by the need not to disappoint you. I hope that I am deserving of the love and aspirations you had for me and for which you worked so hard.

You know Christmas has become a difficult season with yours, Uncle Henry and Lloyd's dates so close but you will all be in our hearts and memories this festive season.

Eternal love

Terrence, Leizel, Karlan, Sam, Jasmin and Sebastian

Hi Amanda Rose, its been a while. Well, girl its been a year of running to stand still, however we're hopeful for the coming year.

Your Child , Jasmin, has got her first job,working for an International Recruitment Company, so, she's on route to conquering the World.

Sebastian, as you have always said, will find his way, he's doing great with his Gaming and Digital course-cant believe he's 21 next year. Where did the time go? Sam and Karlan, are also doing fine. I need to catchup more with them next year.

Leizel, is well, however, her Father passed in July of this year, so its been a traumatic year. Her father was a frisky bugger - so you might catch sight of him, up there.

Mark and Luchana , are alive and reasonably well, but that's all I can say.

We all still miss you terribly. This Christmas, as always, you are in our hearts and minds.

*Much Love

“ For you Mum:

Still I Rise

BY MAYA ANGELOU

*You may write me down in history
With your bitter, twisted lies,
You may trod me in the very dirt
But still, like dust, I'll rise.*

*Just like moons and like suns,
With the certainty of tides,
Just like hopes springing high,
Still I'll rise.*

*Did you want to see me broken?
Bowed head and lowered eyes?
Shoulders falling down like teardrops,
Weakened by my soulful cries?*

*You may shoot me with your words,
You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness,
But still, like air, I'll rise.*

*Does my sexiness upset you?
Does it come as a surprise
That I dance like I've got diamonds
At the meeting of my thighs?*

*Out of the huts of history's shame
I rise. Up from a past that's rooted in pain
I rise. I'm a black ocean, leaping and wide,
Welling and swelling I bear in the tide.*

*Leaving behind nights of terror and fear
I rise. Into a daybreak that's wondrously clear*

I rise

*Bringing the gifts that my ancestors gave,
I am the dream and the hope of the slave.*

I rise

I rise

I rise

“ *Hi Mum,
Hope you're at peace, it was your birthday a couple of weeks back; I lit candles and sent you best wishes. Now, comes the most difficult part, commemorating the year past since we lost you. A lot has happened since your passing, not all good as you may well know. But as you famously said, its not how many times you fall, its how many times you get up! I find my mind wondering to our times together and miss your friendship, wisdom, love and pure humanity. By the grace of God hopefully we will meet again some day. Eternal Love.

“ I loved mrs hazel dearly. My next door neighbor for more than 30 years. She played a huge part in my life even up until her last days.
Mrs hazel we love you we miss you. And it will not be the same without you. I have a bunch of memories that I shall hold on too.
