“ I met you in October of 1988, i was scared to death of you. Your strong German dialect and your stern looks at Pete made me sit up straight and mind my Middle Tennessee manners. What I discovered was a kind and beautiful lady with much life under her belt. You welcomed me as one of your own and in July of 1989 i gave birth to Chelsea, who in so many ways reminded me of her Oma. I loved you and enjoyed any opportunity to visit with you through the years. Godspeed and may He Receive You with wide open arms Heide....until we meet again ❤️
