“ I didn't know Rev. Ingram very long, but I will him coming to church and sitting on the front row during many services. I heard him sing in the microphone during the invitation and thought to myself, "He really has a nice bass voice." Rev. Ingram will be missed.

The Bible reminds us that,

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.” (Rev. 14:13)

To the Ingram Family: What a giant of faith that has taken his flight. I am so confident that Rev. Ingram had a great reception in heaven. He demonstrated such integrity as a Pastor, husband, father and businessman. God bless you family! Home at last! Home at last!
