“I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ May the Spirit of the Living God bless you and the Holy spirit comfort you as we celebrate the graduation and home going of Jacelyn. Our families have known each other for many, many years, and we rejoice in knowing that if we receive Jesus as our Lord and Savior, that we will see her again. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord!! What a wonderful graduation present!! Hallelujah!!

“ Throughout each of our lives we are all connected to each other either through bloodline, marriage, or careers; for Jacelyn the connection was not as important. Jacelyn embraced you as a part of her family. Her loving Spirit will continue to be remembered because of the impact she had on each of us. Her legacy to her family is the Epitome of a Christian Servant and Friend. I am convinced the Angels are singing the song by Tamala Mann, "I Could Only Imagine"

“ I cannot imagine how different my life would have been had I not met Jacelyn. She was a true friend in every sense of the word. A God loving, person, loyal to family and friends. Always there for you, to help celebrate your happiest moments, and lend you a shoulder at your lowest moments, always giving words of encouragement. I moved away, but we kept in touch. I'll miss her terribly. My thoughts and prayers go to her family. May we all find peace in her memories.
