“ I worked with Bowser both on Road Patrol and in the jail. I served as his campaign manager when he ran for sheriff, and although he was not successful, he ran a good campaign. Jim Bowser was a good law enforcement officer, a good teacher and most of all, he was a wonderful man. He will be missed.

“ My deepest sympathy is expressed to Jim Bowser's wife Linda and family. Jim faithfully served as the president of the E.E. Smith Class of 1964 for many years, a responsibility that he took seriously. His calm and committed leadership provided the glue that kept our class together right up until his recent illness and passing. He will be missed.

“ Jimmy was one of the most respected legacy faces of progress in Fayetteville N.C., and I hope he is remembered by our great heavenly Father and our Savior Yahusha. I think I visited Jim when he was at E.E. Smith when I first came back from Singapore. It's so easy for us to be separated by time, distance, and the season that was given us to share. Communication is a full-time activity in this world where we truly are short-timers. And what a comfort it is knowing our God is ONE, with ONE Son, and ONE Spirit who is the Spirit of our Savior for all who accept Him for LIFE. But even more, there is only one unified body of our Messiah that will live just as He lives with His days never-ending. In Him is THE LIFE all mankind longs for. All who seek this LIFE in Him will never be disappointed when the time of renewal comes. This is the Anastasis, the Ressurrection, and may Jim Bowser see this time of ultimate joy together with all who love Yahusha at the time when are raised to LIFE and we see our Savior face to face. - from Otrie B. Barrett Jr. and the Barrett, Myers and Pinn Families (Jimmy's Cousin)
