“ To the Brown’s family,

As the days and weeks pass, and as you return to life's routine, may you continue to feel comforted by the love and support of family and friends.

I thank God for giving me the opportunity and pleasure of working with JB for three years. We shared numerous lunches together and talked about a variety of subjects. I remember one time we disagreed on a subject and the tone of my voice had gotten louder. As usual, JB was calm and cool. I was a little embarrassed as customers started to look at us. The next day I asked JB about going to lunch and he said that he thought I was upset with him. I told him that life is too short to be upset. I wish I had more lunches to share with him. I think JB understood that we enjoyed each other company because we had so much in common. God bless the Brown’s family!
