“ Hi Kim,

I was so sorry to hear about your cousin's passing. I understand how much he meant to you. As you look back, I know you will cherish the fun times and good memories you had. May they give you peace, joy and comfort as you and your family work through your grief. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. As each of you deals with the loss of your cousin and your aunt, may you find hope and stability in knowing that "neither death nor life can separate us from the love of God through Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:38-39). Lean on Him and you will find peace in the midst of sorrow (Proverbs 3:5-6). ~ Mary Tripp
