

Mr. James Domingo McLaurin

July 23, 1978 - September 11, 2021

James Domingo McLaurin was born to Sharon McLaurin on July 23, 1978 in Washington, DC. He departed this life on Saturday, September 11, 2021 at the age of 43. He was affectionately known as "Mingo" and was reared by his grandparents, the late Thomas and Edna McLaurin, in Fayetteville, NC. As was the case with all of his grandparents' children, he grew up attending Parks Chapel Church from birth. Mingo attended Cumberland County Public Schools and received his Graduate Equivalency Degree from Wake Technical Community College. Additionally and most recently, he received a certificate in HVAC systems. In the Murchison Road community, Mingo was loved and respected by all. He loved a good time and enjoyed Hip Hop and rap from his childhood. His rap group, Spoiled Rotten, received notable attention in the '90s from radio station Foxy 99. He was a loyal friend and fiercely defended those closest to him. He cherished his relationship with his mother who was his constant rock and anchor. Mingo has left an indelible impression on the lives of so many, and he will be dearly missed.

Left to cherish Mingo's memories are his mother, Sharon King (Willie) of Fayetteville, NC; his brothers Rangel Bernard McLaurin (Charlene) and Michael Antoine McLaurin both of Fayetteville, NC; four aunts, Bishop Mary Adams (Robert) of Stafford, VA, Carmen Allen (Robert) of Richmond, VA, Janice Worthy (Curtis) of Fayetteville, NC, and Mona Johnson (Joshua) of Henderson, NC; one niece, Rachel Charlise McLaurin of Fayetteville, NC; and a host of cousins and extended family.
