“ Our Beloved Classmate Sister Martha Stephens~Moore and the Precious MOORE Family

Dearest “CLASSMATE MARTHA” & MOORE Family:

On behalf of all of your South Lumberton / Lumberton Senior High 197 Graduating classmates, we greet you with an attitude of sharing in this loss at this time. With defined resoluteness, please accept this written as a form of one of our final acts of love for your precious husband Dea Moore. Our prayers are and will continue to be that you be strong in the embrace, along with us, the continuity, the strength and the consolation JESUS so freely gives because "HE" is the Rock of our refuge.

Deacon James Moore is one whose life on this earth will surely be a m one; ~he served in so many productive roles~ that just cannot be expre

“ Our sincerest condolences to Martha and the family. We knew James through work and enjoyed his presence. He had a calm and balanced countenance that affected those around him in a positive way. He was a great listener and had a gentlemanly manner - never boasted about himself, but worked to uplift others. He made the world a better place. Rest in peace, James. From Diane & T Y. Hester
