“ To the Family of James I. Powell these words of comfort to you as we know are not enough words to say how we miss James, "JERN". JERN was my classmate, friend and was dear to me as a brother. I remember classes we had together while attending Cape Fear High School. Two classes in particular were biology and algebra. What a great time we had "instructing" these classes. My condolences are to the family and you JERN will truly be missed brother. May God continue to strengthen and keep you in times like these. Forever in my prayers and much love to the family. May God's love and blessings be forever with your family,
