

Mr. James Thomas Speight II

October 11, 1973 - May 14, 2024

James Thomas Speight II, 50. Resident of Cumberland Village Assisted Living facility

Fayetteville, North Carolina. Beloved son of James Thomas Speight Sr. (predeceased)

And Hazel Lynne Harrington Speight. James was born on October 11, 1973, in Fort Bragg,

North Carolina. James departed this life on May 14, 2024 to go home with the Lord.

Known for his bright smile, as a child James was very adventurous. He loved riding his bike, drawing, and quite the prankster, he played pranks. Affectionately known to family as “Man” James enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

Around age nine, James was officially diagnosed to be mentally challenged.

With his resilience, which didn't stop James! He went on to be educated in the Cumberland County public school system. James attended Benjamin J Martin elementary and Walker-Spivey special education school. James possessed a never give up spirit. James experienced tough challenges in life, but he took them on and never complained. You see,

James knew his God through the teachings of his grandmother, Mahalia Speight.

As an adult, James spent time in several assisted living facilities. The staff at the facilities always referred to James's humorous side. James loved a good joke!

He loved animals, action movies and could spend endless hours playing video games.

Although challenged, James was very independent and had a warm loving spirit. James touched the lives of all who knew him with his unwavering spirit, he will forever be loved and remembered.
