“ I keep playing this time over and over in my head wondering what you might have been thinking knowing what you knew. I look at your picture and I remember my baby boy learning to walk and getting into everything. My heart is aching so bad because I love you so much. I hope you knew how much I loved you and still do. Death can't take a mother's love. Everybody's holding on and I will never allow the kids to forget you and if I could have, momma would have traded places with you in a heartbeat. Rest my son, I'll see you again.

“ Prayers and thoughts are extended to the entire family during this time of bereavement. God shall wipe every tear from our eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away. Peace and Blessings
