From the Commissioner's Desk: Jeff Regan

Hey, Champ!

As a tribute to you and all that you've meant to me, I offer you 3 trees.

The first tree will stand as testament to the noble man, devoted husband and incredible friend that you were.

The second tree, representing your lovely bride Mandy, will stand beside yours, so that together you may continue to share perpetual sunrises, sunsets and all the hours between together.

Near at hand, a third tree will stand that signifies the many who have seen your light, felt your warmth and shared your laughter. Your spirit inspires and heals.

Arrangements for the planting of your three trees, in a forest in urgent need of restoration, have been made in your honor.

Remember me, as I will remember you when we were together and life was golden.

Enjoy your bottomless sweet tea while you watch all of the games. I'll always love and miss you, my brother.

Rest in Glory and Peace.

“ There's a few people that I went to school with from kindergarten to 12th grade. Jeffery was one of them. He was a good friend. I remember trading comics and always talking trash about his Steelers. Seeing how I've always been a Cowboys fan, it just seemed natural. He came in to my office a few years ago to fix or printer. That was the first time I'd seen him in years and years. We talked for 45 minutes or so. He was a good guy and friend. Keeping his family in my prayers 🙏❤️🙏

“ To the family I didn't know Mr. Jeffery personally, only seen him when he came to the office to service a couple of copiers one was right by my space (when it use to be the Unemployment Office on Ray Ave. Ray NC after we became NC Works they went with a different company). Mr. Regan was always very polite and professional and he knew his business, it never took him long to fix the problem. To say he was good at what he did would have been an understatement and injustice to his craft. To the family keep looking to the author and finisher of your faith, because God can and will bring you thru this new chapter of your life. He's a healer and a company keeper, keep your hands in the Masters Hands. Your Sista In Christ, Ms. LaVonna Armstrong Johnson
