“ I will miss your smile and laughs. We met in September when our family was brought together during grief. During that time I witnessed the God spirit in you. You were a gentle giant. When I saw you last, you was so tired yet you still made me laugh. I'm grateful for the brief encounter God did allow us. Job well done. Know you will never be forgotten. I'm picturing your smile as I write this. Your family has gained an angel to watch, guide and protect them.
