“ Wow my friend I cannot believe I will not see you anymore. We had one falling out over the years but who could stay mad at you.lol JB, you always kept a smile on your face. If a person was feeling down and blue all they need was to talk to you you'd flash that smile tell a joke and before you'd know it you was laughing and feel good. I'm going to miss you I love you JB til we meet again my friend rest well my friend. Angie, Marlene, Red and Brenda my condolences to you and your entire family, May the grace of comfort and keep you all, I love you all.

“ I met Jerry John L Brown (JB) is what he was introduced to me as. He couldn't remember my name so he called me sister-in-law so I called him brother-in-law. He was a very loving person. He never met a stranger. His heart was full of love and laughter for everyone. Brother-in-law was a genuine friend. He made the best chicken and rice and I loved it so good that every time we had a fish fry in Cypress Creek I would request him to bring his famous chicken and rice. When he would get to the Creek he would say sister-in-law go look in the back seat of my car I got you something only if I can get the biggest fish I would laugh. He got his fish because I got my chicken and rice lol. Well he spent the day on November 12 2023 in the Creek we all had a great time. I told him my birthday was coming up and I wanted some chicken and rice he said do you have a catfish for me I said yes in the freezer. Ok I will bring you some chicken and rice. His last words that night as he departed home was I Love everyone God Bless I'm going home. Never in a million years did we think that home. God knows when he is going to bring you home. We can't ask why. We can only accept that our beloved one was called home by God. Brother-in-law you will be truly Missed. You will never be Forgotten. To the family: May God comfort your hearts Remember just because he is not physically seen anymore he is your Guardian Angel now he walks with you just as God does. Praying for all that was effected by this sudden loss. Love you Brother-in-law until we meet again. Wendy Padgett and Bobby Townsend of Cypress Creek NC
