

Ms. Jewell Stribling

March 18, 1943 - February 21, 2021

Jewell Elain Stribling was born on March 18, 1943. She was the second child of five children born to David and Della Hamilton.

Jewell was a very intelligent person, and she wanted to be successful in her life, even though she had to quit school to have a child and marry her childhood sweetheart. She later returned to school and eventually earned a bachelor degree in business, which earned her the position of sales supervisor.

Jewell was a joy to talk to and she made friends wherever she went. Which included her faithful position of eleven years as treasurer of the Spring Lake Senior Citizens Club, Inc. (Spring Lakers).

Jewell was the mother of two sons, Clyde and Carlton. Carlton preceding her in death.

Jewell leaves to mourn her passing: one son, Clyde Stribling; two granddaughters, April and Jasmine Allison; two sisters, Charmaine Irvin and Kathy Brock; three nephews, Guy Harlan, Khalid Irvin and David Hamilton; three nieces, Robin Hamilton, Kandi Hamilton, and Sherice Hamilton; and a host of friends
