

Ms. Joanne Eva Bishop

June 25, 1960 - March 18, 2021

Joanne Eva Bishop, beloved daughter of the late Joseph V. and Anne D. Bishop, was born on June 25, 1960 on Fort Sam Houston Army Base in San Antonio, Texas. On Thursday, March 18, 2021, God called our loving sister, aunt, cousin and friend home.

Joanne graduated from Waynesville High School in Waynesville, Missouri in 1978. She continued her studies at Fayetteville Tech and graduated from Strayer University. Joanne began her career as a Federal employee working as an administrative assistant with the Defense Commissary and also various Federal positions which allowed her to retire in 2017.

Joanne loved the Lord and reading and studying the Word. She also had her own ministry by sending out cards to her sisters in Christ and family. This act of kindness was always a welcome event for the recipient. Joanne will be truly missed.

Joanne Bishop was preceded in death by her father Joseph V. Bishop, mother Anne D. Bishop, and her brother John A. Bishop aka Butch.

Joanne leaves behind to cherish her memories two brothers, Joseph R. Bishop (Michelle) of Tacoma, WA and Joel Bishop of Raleigh, NC; two sisters, Jacqueline Bishop of Hope Mills, NC and Joselyn Bishop-Evins (Andrew) of Goose Creek, SC; two uncles, George Bishop of California and Acie Johnson of Beaufort, SC; five nephews, Joseph L. Bishop, Isiah Bishop, Adrien Pew, Trenton Pew, and Micah Bishop; a host of cousins and friends to include her two best friends, Jackie McMillian and Beryl Patterson, both of Woodbridge, VA.
