“ I am sorry to read of your loss. Many have lost loved ones and want to see them again. The Bible actually says what will be death's unavoidable eventuality at Revelation 21:4, which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Death will be gone forever. May this be of encouragement to the family of John Braun.

The last time I chatted with John was via email (since he had lost his hearing), which was apparently right before he passed away. I tried several times to email him since, but he hadn't replied back. I sent him a text today to let him know I was going to Mardi Gras in hopes he might be in town and I could see him again, and got a reply back from his son letting me know he had passed away last August. I met John as a result of doing business with him, as he became a reseller for a product line I used to represent and I liked John right off the bat. Our relationship quickly went beyond business. John was my friend and mentor and I will miss him very much. I was truly looking forward to seeing him again.

Yes Revelation 21:4 tells us what the unavoidable eventuality of death is, however in Psalms 37:9-11 says; "For evildoers themselves will be cut off, But those hoping in Jehovah are the ones that will possess the earth. And Just a little while longer, and the wicked one will be no more; And you will certainly give attention to his place, and he will not be. But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, And they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace". So I hope that one day I will see John here on earth as God's original purpose for the earth was for it to be inhabited by the meek! Things may change, but God's original purpose does not!

See you soon John!

Richard, I am a Brown, researching family on Ancestry. I know the connection of the Brown's and Braun's of Kingston, NY back to Germany. I was wondering if you had a picture of John Clement Braun.. Btw, he named after his grandfather, John Clement Braun. Or if you could put me in touch with his son, this would wonderful to connect up with a "living" descendant of the Kingston, NY Braun family.
