

Mr. John Nathan Washington

September 18, 1947 - January 13, 2025

John Nathan Washington, affectionately called Nate, son of the late John and Annie Mae Washington, was born September 18, 1947.

Nate received his formative education in the Bladen County School System which he enjoyed sharing his unforgettable experiences with others.

Even at an early age, Nate was intrigued with nature. As a child, Nate enjoyed assisting his father with agricultural duties on their farm. His love for animals, especially horses, brought him a sense of serene and tranquility.

Nate lived a simple life. He enjoyed fishing, fast cards, and spending precious time with his family and friends. Very rarely did he meet strangers. He was truly an outgoing individual who enjoyed life to its fullest.

He was employed with Good Year Tire Company until his retirement. He was very knowledgeable of his craft and volunteered his services when needed.

Nate was preceded in death by his father, John Washington; his mother, Annie Mae Pone Washington; his brother, George Washington; and sister, Loraine Pone.

He leaves to mourn, his son: Anthony Jones; his daughter: Tonya L.

Washington; his aunt: Irene Pone Spearman; his sister: Mary Washington Grant (Robert); his brother: Elmo Washington; grandchildren, great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.

John Nathan Washington will forever be remembered in our hearts and minds.
